Hi beautiful girl. I watched and listened to the show - good advice from Dad put me in the best place to watch. Ironically my neighbor was next to me. . .

After traffic is better than the east coast beach 🏖️. The bangs could use a little more boom to let me feel the power.

Next fireworks show (new years) we should be closer I think Sydney would be ideal.

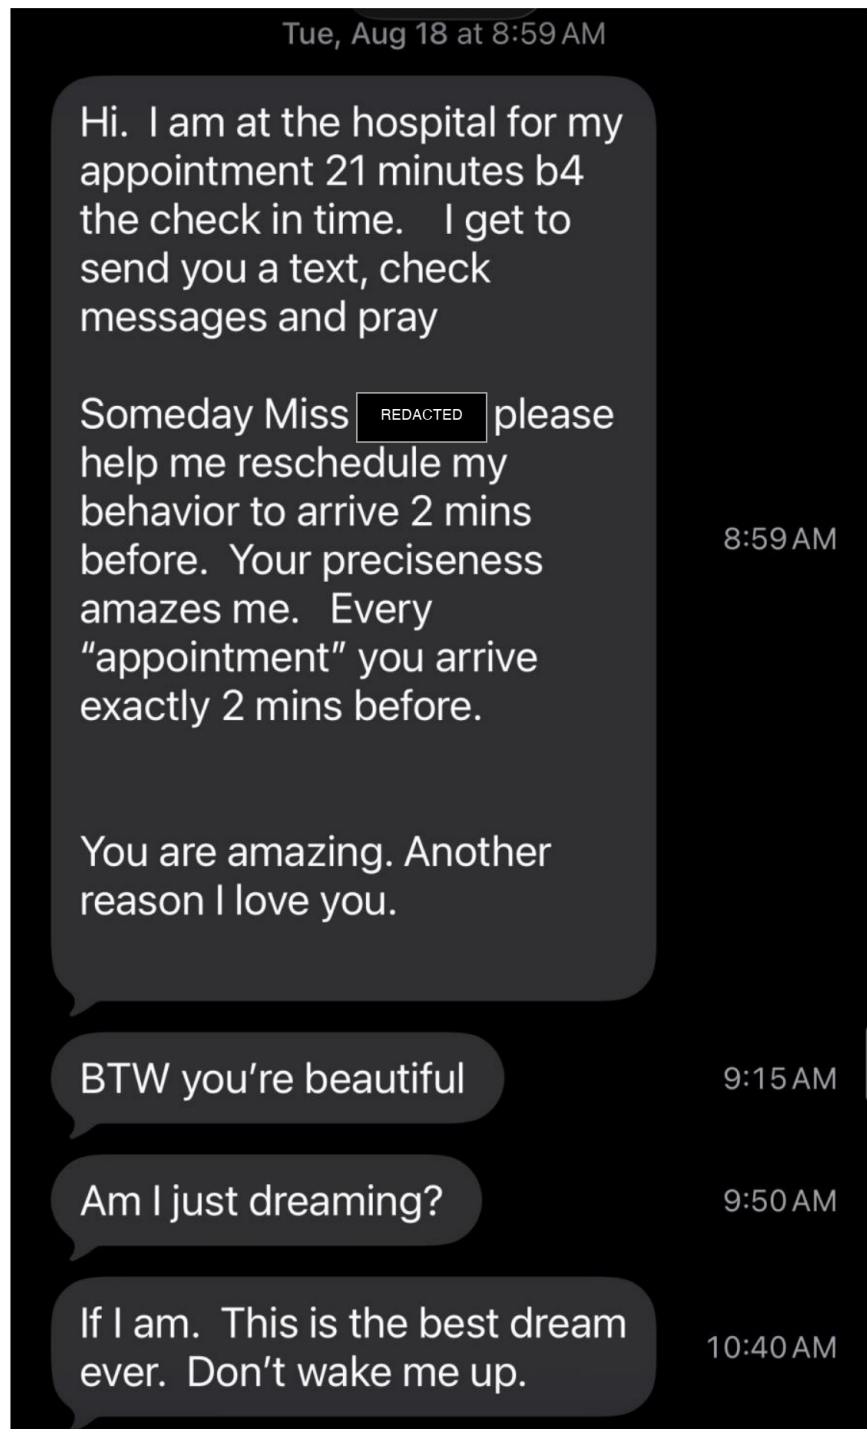

Thanks for letting me see you eyes today. I look forward to seeing you tomorrow and hopefully permitting me to come to my senses . . . Good Night. I love you.
- James

I just want to love and cherish you. But the distance between us now is too much. You're the only person who understood me let me be me ever in my whole life.

I have huge bigger than life trust issues. I was gang raped multiple times by catholic priests and laity. All set up by my mother's father and [REDACTED] I had to submit to their follies.

But that's not what happened to us. All my masks fell off my face, the walls came down and now you won't talk to me.

You said I was t the issue. But I am bc I hate where I am again back with masks, walls and rules.

Don't cry [REDACTED] Eventually we run out of tears and anger appears.

I say let's start again make some rules and boundaries
and then start living let it evolve by the grace of God.

The trionic laws

says Jim,
maybe you're just too holy for
her. But you're a handsome holy Man who knows how to make others around you feel better. I mean you do it to me all the time. I met you in.
